

Kerzner Award
Evaluation Questions

2007

Nominee's Name: _____
Company Name: _____
Company Address: _____
Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____

Submitted by: _____
Company Name: _____
Company Address: _____
Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____
Relationship to Nominee: _____

Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability.

1. From a project management perspective, what do you believe is your nominee's most significant contribution to your organization as a result of the project or projects that he or she managed?
2. How has your nominee demonstrated his or her interest in continuing education and personal development of project management skills and techniques?
3. How would you describe your nominee's project management and team leadership philosophies? Provide specific examples of these skills and how they were used to motivate your nominee's project teams.
4. How does your nominee demonstrate an awareness of trends in the project management profession? How does your nominee contribute to the continued development of tools, techniques, and best practices to enhance the profession across various industries?
5. Considering today's complex demands on one's professional and personal lives, what are some of the creative ideas/tools that your nominee uses to maintain a balanced life approach?

Kerzner Award Evaluation Questions

2007

6. Project managers often become mentors for people entering the project management field. Describe your nominee's mentorship capabilities and effectiveness as a coach and mentor.
7. Integrity is a key characteristic of an effective manager. How does your nominee demonstrate personal integrity and promote integrity within his or her team or organization?
8. The demands of the project manager position require the ability to be creative and to inspire innovation within the project team. Describe how your nominee encourages innovative thinking and creativity.
9. Please review the following questions and provide the requested information regarding the project or projects in which your nominee was recently involved.
  - What were the number of core and extended team members involved in the project?
  - What was the overall budget of the project?
  - What was the number of other projects being managed simultaneously?
  - What was the total value (combined budgets) of your nominee's Project Portfolio at the time?
  - What quantifiable business results were achieved from implementation of your nominee's project or projects?
Please address the following specifics:
    - a. Percentage that the project was completed under project budget:
    - b. Number of weeks that the project was completed ahead of schedule:
    - c. Amount that organizational operating costs were reduced:
    - d. Amount productivity was increased:
    - e. Amount of defects that were reduced: