The Agile Project Manager

Testimonials

"This conference was awesome! We are undergoing an Agile Transformation within our organization and I have not fully understood what this meant to me. The information shared at this conference has helped clear up that confusion. I feel more knowledgeable and confident when I interact with others using agile."

Head of Technology Organizational Change Management, Wells Fargo

"Excellent opportunity to participate, learn, and network. Impressed with the coordination and resources made available for the conference and for an extended period beyond.
Thank you!"

Program Manager Verizon

"With regards to Virtual Conferences – this is one of the best. I hope to never have to go to a conference in-person ever again!"

VP Program & Project Manager Chief Information Security Office at Citi
