Letter from the CEO

Advancing Your People with IIL

At IIL, our story is rooted in a deep belief: when you nurture people, you nurture progress. More than 35 years ago, we set out with a vision—to create an organization dedicated to elevating people and organizations to reach their fullest potential. Each day, I am inspired by the remarkable results we achieve together and the positive change we spark in communities around the world.

Our Learning Solutions:

I've always believed that learning should be as unique as the people and organizations we serve. That's why we design customized learning programs—crafted specifically for your needs—to help your people and your business grow. We offer engaging, live instructor-led online open enrollment courses that connect participants with world-class educators wherever they are. Our immersive virtual experiences—conferences, webcasts, webinars, and special events—bring the latest insights right to you, your team and your organization.

Consulting Solutions:

With more than three decades of expertise, IIL stands as your partner in transformation. Our consultants deliver expert guidance, innovative assessment tools, and time-tested methodologies to support you through complex changes. Whether your organization is navigating digital transformation, seeking greater agility, or optimizing key business processes, we're here to help you achieve tangible results and thrive in an ever-evolving business landscape.

We are proud to say that our journey has taken us across industries and around the world, allowing us to share valuable insights, a wealth of project experience, and a truly adaptive, agile approach to every client challenge.

I invite you to discover what's possible when you partner with us. Let's move forward — visit us at iil.com or email us at learning@iil.com.

Our Core Values

Intelligence. Integrity. Innovation.

At IIL, “Intelligence, Integrity and Innovation” is more than just our motto – it is a statement that defines who we are, what we do and how we do it. These three core values inform how we interact with clients and with one another, forming the foundation for how we conduct our business all over the world.

Intelligence

We believe in the fundamental importance of learning and strive to continually increase our own knowledge. We do this by listening, asking questions and integrating what we learn into our everyday lives. We learn from and respect the cultures in which we work, and we know that every person’s voice is important.

Integrity

We place a premium value on honesty and integrity. Taking responsibility for our actions and learning from our mistakes drives us to continually improve our performance. We believe in collaboration and know that it is built on trust and mutual respect. We run our business in an ethical, sustainable, and socially responsible way.

Innovation

We are thinkers and strategists as well as creative problem solvers. We see challenges as opportunities, striving always to do our work as efficiently and effectively as possible. We know that discovery drives innovation and are not satisfied with the status quo. We keep our finger on the pulse of the global marketplace, seeking to anticipate our customers’ needs and exceed their expectations.

Custom Training

When it comes to training and development, are the real needs of your company being met?

Your engagement is unique. At IIL, we craft customized learning journeys that engage, equip, and empower your workforce to achieve peak performance.

We align meaningful and relevant customized learning solutions with the constant changes in the world, the evolving ways we interact, the technology we use, and critical shifts in the marketplace.

Any of our courses can be delivered to your team or organization in a private format at your location, at one of our training sites, or online.

Choose from a wide range of courses in our extensive curriculum, delivered when and where you need it. If you require a customized program, our Global Learning Solutions (GLS) team can provide a blended solution that meets precise business objectives, knowledge gaps or cultural preferences. Beyond training, we also provide onsite consulting, group coaching, and individual mentoring.

We are proud to offer learning solutions customized to suit a range of cultures and languages. The industry expertise of our elite trainers and consultants spans more than 150 countries and 20 languages.

Capability and Competency Assessments

ILL's Capability and Competency Assessments help business leaders measure skills and organizational maturity in project management, agile practices, and leadership. This enables the creation of customized training programs.

360° Competency Assessments

ILL's customizable competency assessments help your organization define key skills for each role, gather 360° feedback, identify skill gaps, and prioritize training investments. This ensures you provide the right training to the right people at the right time, improving your training ROI. Detailed individual and organizational reports support your decision making.

We offer six unique Competency Assessment solutions:

- Project Management
- Portfolio Management
- Leadership
- Program Management
- Business Analysis
- 360° Agile Competency

Kerzner PM Maturity Assessment™ (KPMMA)

Developed by Dr. Harold Kerzner, one of the world's foremost experts in project management strategies and best practices, the Kerzner Project Management Maturity Assessment™ (KPMMA) measures both Individual and Organizational Maturity. This assessment evaluates your company's performance and processes. It will help you and your company achieve a new level of project management excellence.

KPMMA v.4 includes agnostic, predictive, agile, and hybrid approaches to project management. This aligns with project management best practices, covering predictive, hybrid/ agile, and agnostic methods. It assesses value and benefits management, resilience, future adaptability, change management, and more. The questions are customizable to fit your internal processes and are presented in a multiple choice, staged format. Participants complete the assessment through an easy-to-use web-based interface.

The assessment provides a detailed breakdown of organizational and individual scores, benchmarks your performance against competitors and the market, and offers instant scoring and reporting. You will receive a thorough analysis with actionable, high-level recommendations.
